
Each dot is one mapped relation label. Both axes use log scales.
The equality line is descriptive; no power-law fit or original-distribution matching objective is assumed.